CONVENTION'S WORK ENDS

District Christian Endeavorers Joyful Over Results.

EACH SESSION A SUCCESS

The Sixth Annual Reunton the Most Promising of Any Ever Held-Welcome Was Extended by All Churches and the Attendance Was Unusually Great.

The MINIS annual convention of the District Christian Endeavor Union, which was formally opened on Friday evening at the New York Avenue Presbykerian Church with an inspiring song service, ended last evening with a most solemn consecration. service. Preliminary to the convention there were prayer services in the various churches in the city on Thursday even ing, and a special prayer meeting at the New York Avenue Church on Friday morn-Ing at Talkings.

Yesterday was by far the husiest day of the convention, there being four meetings held in different parts of the city under the auspices of the Christian Endeavorers. The first of these was an evangelization conference at the First Congregational Church, which was addressed on the subjecof "Giving." by Major George A. Hillon. At the close of the meeting the congregation attionreed to Market space, where an open are meeting was held from the Central Upon Mission Gospel wagon, under the conduct of Mr. E. D. Balley, who is in

The devotional exercises were led by the Rev. Dr. Skellinger, of the Sixth Presby-terian Church, and brief addresses Were made by Revs. Dr. Buller and Warren. In the arternoon at 2:30 o'clock a fully of the junior societies was bold at the Pirst Goog emitional Church. This was, perhaps the most interesting ession of the convention and demonstrated plainly the are dolor in leading the rooms people of the city, bern and girls ranging from nine to dixto-regard of age, olong the path of Christian activity. The faceting was conducted by the Rev. Charles If. Butler, prosident of the Juniors, and was attended to 700 of 800 young folks who took to active part in the exercises.

The interesting story of what the junior committees are sking for the cause of silet was engertainingly told by chairmen of the following committees: Leokout, Eubert Discusore, Metopolitan

Another enteresting feature of the program was the religine extended by seven Darle guls. Miss Laura Wade Rice, of Baltimore, gave a brief but instructive talk on "Why We Work for Missions." The rally closed with a consecration a conducted by the Rev. Dr. Butler.

In the afternish a meeting of the of-ficers of all the local Endeavor societies was held at the New York Avenue Pres-byterian Church, at which the plans for the tanday year were discussed, Just before the consecration service last exening a reception was tendered Miss Ella D. McLaurin, a representative of the Baptist Ministery Union, who, addressed the Convention on Friday evening. The local Endenyagers and their friends were presented by President Grant Leet and Mr. Muss M. Stand. The meeting, which was attended by a congregation which opened with a song service, during which sung with great spirit and in fine style ices, under the direction of Mr. Page L. Riccinergian. The devolunal ex-ercises were conducted by the Rev. Adam. Reach, master of the Fifth Congregational xxvi:36-46.

ON THE OTHER SIDE

-are the establishments where high-class merchandise and high-class prices are inseparably linked; where "exclusiveness" is all the word implies. Is not the Palais Royal "Alone?"

HE PALAIS ROYAL'S Cash Business means less than usual prices to us, when we buy; and less than usual prices to you when we sell. This is in evidence just now when summer-like weather creates overloaded manufacturers and importers. The results are shown in our newly little prices and newly great stocks. The entire absence of all trashy goods enables the expression: "Aristocratic Bargains."
